Hi Gary,
Here is the file on my computer. Unfortunately, I don't know if it is the draft or the final copy. Eric tweaked my draft and softened the wording but changed none of the essence or the recommendations.
Eric Walker may have the later file that is the official final report.

Hi Jayne,

Do you have the report you did on the Koch gift? I cant find the original senate report from 2011 (or 2010?) The administration wants to put out a press release and I would like to refer to the report before commenting.
